I have been using this prelude book as sight reading during lesson to try it out. Since this event was established to honor his work, we felt that the inclusion of a limited number of his early level arrangements might be just what some students require to pique their interest and Book 2: For Late Elementary to Early Intermediate Piano their participation in Festivals. In middle school, the cello caught her interest, so I had to share her practice time with the new instrument. After earning gold cups for both piano and cello, Zuill left the junior division and entered the student auditions.
