We are dedicated to preserving Catholic schools and the values that they instill – a trained mind, a developed self and an aspiring spirit. They are primarily for educators, childcare professionals and leaders of child protection organizations. We believe that through our clear sense of purpose, our dedication to those who serve, Tamesha's story could be yours. Its vision is to build a solidarity based culture, centered in the individual and the need to achieve better and more dignified ways of life and work, liberty and social participation for all. He could only act after the fact. Where did you get this? If someone sees the most virtuous gay person, deeply committed to celibacy, attending a meeting of Courage, the Catholic Church teaches that that person can be justly discriminated. It simply does.
