It provides pragmatic guidance to the Convention and its many partners for strengthening protection of wilderness by promoting the profound linkages between culture and wild nature. The Dominions varied in their evolving approaches to Indigenous service, guided by their respective race policies. However, the clause could be changed by a majority vote in parliament and, more importantly, a qualifying condition safeguarded the opportunity for the clause to be repealed summarily in times of war.

It calls for a renewed cultural politics seeking to both democratize heritage. Les vainqueuses sont plus nombreuses que les vainqueurs sur Google... The outward support for the war given by most First Nations leaders did not in all cases reflect the opinions of those whom they purportedly represented.

The link between military service and hopes for civil rights is especially poignant. Au juste, qui sont les principaux habitants de la Nouvelle-France?
