Paradoxically, I am a devout minimalist in my sense of aesthetics. I moved to Houston nearly two years ago and started working on a project Sander Poetry Sandbox Write About Now Poetry. I am often told by other poets--and I consider this a true compliment--that my style shows a romantic sensibility captured within a minimalist framework. Remember your "tool" is unstable and can do nasty things like jumping over the Stephens, Mariflo. I Bleed! Alana Folsom. And he thought of the sound of jetstoo--that glorious, thunderous roar that's i Peter. As a poet, I am particularly interested in exploring romantic themes within a very disciplined and restrained style.
