Quite frankly, it may have even saved my life. Life itself then gives us these rites of passage, and that's what they are. Aug 04, Jean rated it it was amazing.

Each of these experiences in life can be an opportunity going deep and learning. These criteria are given because a person may experience feelings similar to those associated with a dark night but will not actually be going through a dark night. He clearly has the benefit of many years of spiritual practice with the depth of personal enlightenment.

While it is clear that John knows his theology, and that he has specific theological deepening exercises were tools to further my spiritual practice.
