What I am saying is that women have predetermined responses to conventional or unoriginal approaches. I loved these two together, they had a beautiful friendship and a deep love that lay the foundation to a life full of love ahead. I have been through enough pain to let a man close to then be messed about and if I spend my life alone so be it.

I haven't ever had a guy say that directly to me. From what I can gather she knew both of them before his wife died and maybe she has had a secret thing for him for quite some time and now the wife is no longer around its full steam ahead. Add to the story, an ex boyfriend that moved to another city.

I have since moved to a major metropolis. The morning after a drunken one night he asked to borrow my phone number and I said no.
