To be embodied is to be a physical presence in this world. Levine weaves together story and practice and helps readers discover their own infinite capacity for mercy and compassion under difficult circumstances. BeyondtheSelf. Be the first to write a review. More often they hold a symbol of some kind, quite often of some kind of implement or tool, such as a willow branch to drive away illness, a conch to summon friendly spirits, a jug for dispensing water or nectar, a monk's staff, a sutra, a bowl of fruit, and so on.
